

Kim Reid
BSN, RN, CRNI

Kim Reid, BSN, RN, CRNI is a nurse in Sparrow's Infusion Center. She is a member of the American Nurses Association (ANA), Michigan Nurses Association (MNA), and the Infusion Nurses Society (INS). In addition to being a Certified Registered Nurse of Infusion (CRNI), this year, Kim was elected to the national board for INS and now helps in the writing and review of exam questions for certification exams. She has a passion for teaching and passing forward knowledge and necessary skill sets to new and experienced nurses. Kim is detail oriented and emphasizes safety and quality in everything she does; her commitment to teaching those around her allows Kim's focus on quality to spread throughout her unit and Sparrow hospital. In addition, Kim is currently enrolled at Chamberlain College of Nursing where she is pursuing her Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP) Master's degree.
